We pitch our light tent and our cattle graze And the place of our sojourning Sees us never more returning! Third Picture--Chorus of the Sons of Japhet Where in inlets deep sports the ocean glad, Where the murmuring streamlet the shore doth kiss, The bright shore, all in verdure clad, There make we our abode. Where in desolate forests, in piny crag. Eagles build their eyry. Where all around is heard ne er a sound. There make we our abode. Where on high their blue peaks the mountains raise; Where the land.tcape ever new charms unfolds To the spirit s dreamy gaze, There make we our abode. a EROTIK Grieg Edward Hagerup Grieg,...
