When a visionary inventor threatens the entrenched powers of the Old South, the result is murder. Tom Edmunton, the science-minded son of a cotton planter, has designed a prototype tractor in antebellum Louisiana. He foresees a new age of mechanized farming that will empty the fields of men and supplant the Souths slave system. But the planters of his town dont like his big ideas about changing their world or the intensity with which hes pursuing them. As Tom hears the call of the new age, he also feels the pull of two women. Rachel, a senators daughter, loves him, but will she break with her...
