And the event which we are assembled to commemorate has been deemed worthy of but an obscure place in history. Few, very few have been made acquainted with the fact, that on the 8th day of October 1745, a church of Christ was organized in this place, and that on the day following Rev. Nathan Strong was ordained their pastor. But however trivial the celebration of a church's birth-day, and the calling to remembrance the virtues and deeds of our ancestors may appear to some, your coming together, my friends, bespeaks an interest in the present occasion. And grateful are we, who here stately worship the God of our fathers, that we are allowed the privilege of meeting at this time so many of...
