Piper's happily ever after has been postponed. Destiny is funny like that. In Last Call, Piper Maxwell revealed her true self to her mate, Jace Anderson. After fighting to survive the night on which her biggest secret was exposed, Piper believed she'd get her happily ever after. Too bad fate had other plans. Jace would do anything to protect Piper. Finding out who and what Piper truly is seems like the best way to help. Unbeknown to Jace, though, the more he seeks answers, the bigger the risk he's putting Piper and himself in. All Piper wanted was to run the bar Jace owned and make her home with the man she loves. Now she's being stalked by a scared young man, Jace's best friend is looking into her past while staying with them, and they have a meeting with a stranger who shares Piper's abilities. Things are changing rapidly and Piper finds herself struggling to understand what is really going on with her. Nothing is what it appears to be as Piper and Jace are captured and held hostage. The only way they'll be able to survive this time is if Piper can keep her newest and largest secret yet from the man who holds their lives in his hands.
