Don Young (Chairman of the Committee) presiding. Statement of Hon. Don Young, A U.S. Representative From Alaska; And Chairman, Committee On Resources Mr. Young. The meeting will come to order. The committee meets this afternoon to review and discuss the Interior Department's fiscal year 1997 budget with Secretary Babbitt. It is good to have him here. I know that members of both sides will want to discuss many matters related to programs and activities of the Department. For that reason, I will be brief. I will make everybody on this committee happy, including the Secretary. The administration and the Republicans on this committee have some significant differences over how many of the Department's programs should be funded. However, many of our recommendations to the appropriations House Budget Committee in fiscal year 1997 will be significant increases over the current fiscal year 1996 conference report. For example, we have recommended a 2.5 percent increase for operations and maintenance of the National Park Service; a $15 million increase in funding for the Endangered Species Act; a $2 million increase in funding for the Endangered Species Conservation Fund; $2.25 million increase in funding for the North American Wetlands Conservation Fund; a $6 million increase in the Everglades Restoration Plan; a $14 million increase for the Refuse Lands Acquisition Program. These increases will be considered in context with the budget constraints we...
