From Where I Sit: A Memoir by Victoria Covington (Paperback)

By Victoria Covington

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Freedom and discipline: Typically, the two concepts are mutually exclusive. However, in this musically crafted memoir, Bennettsville, South Carolina native Victoria Covington proves that mastering the rules is a fundamental step in the process of transcending them. Vickie was born with many malformed joints including a rigid right wrist and a right hip with no socket. She has been confined to a wheelchair since the age of twelve. No one could have predicted that she would become a brilliant concert pianist and eventually chairperson of the piano department at Baldwin Wallace University in Berea, Ohio--but that is precisely what she did. Vickie's autobiography could end there . . . a triumphant tale with a happy ending, but that wouldn't be the whole story. At the peak of her career, she developed rheumatoid arthritis. Instead of succumbing to fear and disappointment, Vickie relied on the fundamentals that had served her well throughout her life and extended her teaching career for fifteen years after becoming arthritic. This is a story of creativity, beginning with Vickie's early years,...
