.During the interval between the land and sea breezes in the forenoon, a heavy smoky haze frequently hangs over the land, obscuring everything from view, so that great care should be exercised when approaching the land shortly after daylight in these months. This haze also occasionally occurs during the calm hours of the evening. From the southward a vessel should not shoal into less than 12 or 11 fathoms between Port Chaul and Khandari Island, as in the vicinity From the Southward, , , f large fishing stakes extend some distance from the coast. When Khandari Island bears southward of east a course may be steered for the outer light vessel, which can be passed at a convenient distance on either side; thence a N. E. N. course will lead to the anchorage east of Sunk Rock, or proceed further up the harbour to the usual mooring...
