

Oklahomans and Their State; A Newspaper Reference Work (Paperback)

By Oklahoma Biographical Association

Not Avail, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: . is known from coast to coast--Wirt Franklin of Ardmore, who was so fortunate as to be one of the discoverers of the wonderful Healdton oil field. Franklin's holdings in the Healdton field made him one of the richest men in the business in Oklahoma. Franklin was born in Richmond, Missouri, March 22, 1883, the son of J. H. and Irene H. Franklin. He was educated in the high school of Bacon, Illinois, and the law department of Columbian University of Washington, D. C, the name of which institution has since been changed to the George Washington University. Franklin was a stenographer for the Dawes commission at Muskogee from 1902 to 1904 and after filling in two years more as a law clerk, he embarked in the law business for himself at Ardmore. Shortly after his start in the law profession was well made he...

DOWNLOAD PDF

READ ONLINE

[4.39 MB]

Reviews

These types of publication is the best book available. it absolutely was written very completely and helpful. I am very happy to explain how here is the greatest book we have study within my individual existence and can be the greatest publication for possibly.

-- Lucas Brown

This book might be worthy of a go through, and a lot better than other. it had been written really properly and helpful. You may like just how the author write this publication.

-- Prof. Mattie Beatty