Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .in fixing a standard of 18 per cent., which should include these Irish butters--I do, undoubtedly, because I believe there are many times in the season when it would not be possible for a poor farmer to work down to thai limit. 7311. What do you think would be a fair standard which would not inflict any injustice upon the Irish farmers?--20 per cent. 7312. 20 per cent., you think, would do it?--Yes; and I also think--as the Chairman was good enough to ask my opinion upon that point--that it would be a safer limit for another reason too. If you fix 20 per cent, it is easier to come down by another regulation of the Department than to some down suddenly, and to find it a greater difficulty to go up, after having perhaps punished a lot of innocent men; you cannot restore their...
