

Pale Gray for Guilt

By John D. MacDonald

Random House Trade. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 320 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.1in. x 1.0in. From a beloved master of crime fiction, Pale Gray for Guilt is one of many classic novels featuring Travis McGee, the hard-boiled detective who lives on a houseboat. Travis McGee's old football buddy Tush Bannon is resisting pressure to sell off his floundering motel and marina to a group of influential movers and shakers. Then he's found dead. For a big man, Tush was a pussycat: devoted to his wife and three kids and always optimistic about his business— even when things were at their worst. So even though his death is ruled a suicide, McGee suspects murder . . . and a vile conspiracy. As a young writer, all I ever wanted was to touch readers as powerfully as John D. MacDonald touched me. Dean Koontz Tush Bannon was in the wrong spot at the wrong time. His measly plot of land just so happened to sit right in the middle of a rich parcel of five hundred waterfront acres that big-money real estate interests decided they simply must have. It didn't matter that Tush was a nice guy with a family, or that he...
